

A buffet table is set up with a white tablecloth. In the center, there are two large silver chafing dishes. The one on the left contains a colorful vegetable medley with red and yellow bell peppers and green onions. The one on the right contains a meat and vegetable dish, possibly a stew or braised meat. To the left of these are several white plates, some with sliced meats and vegetables, and a glass bowl of white sauce. In the foreground, there are stacks of white plates and a silver tray with utensils. A small sign on the left side of the table reads "野菜ステーキ" (Vegetable Steak) and "分數チー・スフィンテ" (Fractional Cheese Sphint).
